

Sno-King Amateur Hockey

2021-2022
Year End Awards

Sno-King Amateur Hockey Awards for 2021-2022 Hockey Season

Bob McCormick Memorial Award:

This award is presented each year to the Coach or Volunteer that best demonstrates the love and admiration for the game of hockey, and commitment and dedication to the players and the program in the same manner as Bob McCormick did for some 26 years at Sno-King. Bob's dedication to the game and his love for his players will always be remembered and shared through this memorial award.

Award Recipient: Bill Stillwell

Volunteer of the Year:

Awarded in recognition of individuals who work tirelessly in promoting Sno-King and its members.

Award Recipient: Natalie Hovanec

Manager of the Year:

Awarded to the individual demonstrating a high degree of caring, organization, and proficiency in discharging the duties of manager which resulted in an exemplary experience for the members of the team and their families.

Award Recipient: Daniel Lowery

Manager of the Year:

Awarded to the individual demonstrating a high degree of caring, organization, and proficiency in discharging the duties of manager which resulted in an exemplary experience for the members of the team and their families.

Award Recipient: Jeff Shiu

Manager of the Year:

Awarded to the individual demonstrating a high degree of caring, organization, and proficiency in discharging the duties of manager which resulted in an exemplary experience for the members of the team and their families.

Award Recipient: Caty Stamp

10U Rec Player of the Year:

Awarded to the player who demonstrates a high degree of skill based on his/her performance during the season and best exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Jacob Chapin

10U Rec Goaltender of the Year:

Awarded to the most skilled goaltender in the Association based on his/her performance during the season.

Award Recipient: Elijah Stover

10U Rec Coach of the Year:

Awarded to the Rec coach whose demeanor, teaching, and leadership resulted in the team's exemplary success on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Josefin Shakya

10U Select Player of the Year:

Awarded to the player who demonstrates a high degree of skill based on his/her performance during the season and best exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Iaroslav Sokolov

10U Select Goaltender of the Year:

Awarded to the most skilled goaltender in the Association based on his/her performance during the course of the season.

Award Recipient: Philip Han

10U Select Coach of the Year:

Awarded to the Rep coach whose demeanor, teaching, and leadership resulted in the team's exemplary success on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Jeff Flasko

12U Rec Player of the Year:

Awarded to the player who demonstrates a high degree of skill based on his/her performance during the season and best exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Evan Lee

12U Rec Goaltender of the Year:

Awarded to the most skilled goaltender in the Association based on his/her performance during the season.

Award Recipient: AJ Tsu

12U Rec Coach of the Year:

Awarded to the Rec coach whose demeanor, teaching, and leadership resulted in the team's exemplary success on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Jonathan Scofield

12U Select Player of the Year:

Awarded to the player who demonstrates a high degree of skill based on his/her performance during the season and best exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Holden Tuttle

12U Select Goaltender of the Year:

Awarded to the most skilled goaltender in the Association based on his/her performance during the course of the season.

Award Recipient: Samuel Trnecka

12U Select Coach of the Year:

Awarded to the Rep coach whose demeanor, teaching, and leadership resulted in the team's exemplary success on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Spencer Rodgers

14U Rec Player of the Year:

Awarded to the player who demonstrates a high degree of skill based on his/her performance during the season and best exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: JC Pile

14U Rec Goaltender of the Year:

Awarded to the most skilled goaltender in the Association based on his/her performance during the season.

Award Recipient: Oliver Knutson

14U Rec Coach of the Year:

Awarded to the Rec coach whose demeanor, teaching, and leadership resulted in the team's exemplary success on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Stanley Bean

14U Select Player of the Year:

Awarded to the player who demonstrates a high degree of skill based on his/her performance during the season and best exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Darby Marshall

14U Select Player of the Year:

Awarded to the player who demonstrates a high degree of skill based on his/her performance during the season and best exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Brooklyn O'Brien

14U Select Goaltender of the Year:

Awarded to the most skilled goaltender in the Association based on his/her performance during the course of the season.

Award Recipient: Tyler Mak

14U Select Coach of the Year:

Awarded to the Rep coach whose demeanor, teaching, and leadership resulted in the team's exemplary success on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Kris Wilson

16U/18U Rec Player of the Year:

Awarded to the player who demonstrates a high degree of skill based on his/her performance during the season and best exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Ashton Menge

18U Rec Goaltender of the Year:

Awarded to the most skilled goaltender in the Association based on his/her performance during the season.

Award Recipient: Eric Gorski

18U Rec Coach of the Year:

Awarded to the Rec coach whose demeanor, teaching, and leadership resulted in the team's exemplary success on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Guillaume Provost

16U/18U Select Player of the Year:

Awarded to the player who demonstrates a high degree of skill based on his/her performance during the season and best exemplifies sportsmanship on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Adam Paulson

16U/18U Select Goaltender of the Year:

Awarded to the most skilled goaltender in the Association based on his/her performance during the course of the season.

Award Recipient: Gabby DeVita

18U Select Coach of the Year:

Awarded to the Rep coach whose demeanor, teaching, and leadership resulted in the team's exemplary success on and off the ice.

Award Recipient: Jarett Goodkin